ALTERGY SETTLES DISPUTE WITH ENERSYS

FOLSOM, California –August 13, 2014~ Alteryg Systems ("Alteryg"), a global leader in the design, manufacture, sales, marketing and deployment of clean and green hydrogen fuel cell power systems, announced today that it has entered into a binding term sheet with EnerSys Delaware, Inc. (NYSE: ENS) in regard to arbitration proceedings held before the American Arbitration Association ("AAA").

EnerSys Delaware, Inc. ("EnerSys") is the world's largest lead-acid battery company and Alteryg's former exclusive distributor for certain markets in the United States. On May 13, 2014, the AAA issued an award in Alteryg's favor on a claim that EnerSys had tortiously interfered with Alteryg's sales of its products.

Under the terms of the agreement, EnerSys will pay to Alteryg $40 million in settlement of Alteryg's claims. "We are pleased to have reached an agreement with EnerSys that will settle this matter without the need for further litigation," commented Eric Mettler, President and CEO of Alteryg. "With this settlement, Alteryg can turn its focus back to what we do best: Changing the Way the World Gets its Power."
